Milford Library Regrettably Cuts Hours of Service

Milford Public Library has been serving the community for over 120 years; however, due to unforeseen circumstances, starting June 5, 2023, the Milford Public Library will be opening its doors less than usual. Due to a cut in government funding, the library has had to reduce services and hours of operation. According to Director Ella Wilkerson, "We wish we did not have to take such drastic measures, but with this budget shortfall we have few options."

We apologize for any hardship and inconvenience this may cause to our patrons. Our Adult, Teen, and Children's programs and services will carry on as the budget allows.

What can be done about it?

Contact your local legislatures and request that the tax for public libraries be raised. Donate! You can donate money (tax deductible) or time. Please consider becoming a volunteer to help with fundraising projects, community outreach, or daily operations.

The Milford Public Library appreciates your patronage and understanding during this season of change.
