WELCOME!

The Society in partnership with CAMP Rehoboth is pleased to present the 2023 Rehoboth Beach PRIDE Film Festival to celebrate cinema and PRIDE month. Festival goers will experience eight films and a series of Shorts over two-and-half days at the Cinema Art Theater.

Formerly known as the LGBTQ+ CINE-brations Festival, this year we have updated the name and moved the event to PRIDE Month. The Society celebrates our local year-round LGBTQ+ community by selecting films that shine a light on their contributions and challenges.

Right-off the Sundance Film Festival, program documentaries include the legendary folk-rock band, Indigo Girls, ITS ONLY LIFE AFTER ALL screening and post-party. An inside look at transgender sex workers in KOKOMO CITY. Other feature titles will focus on trans development, THE DALLIES and the battle to advance LGBTQ+ rights in a conservative Christian town with MAMA BEARS.

We thank the 2023 PRIDE Festival Planning Committee for their time and talent.

KOKOMO CITY (Documentary)

Fri June 9 7 pm

Hosted by Studio C Creative

Four Black transgender sex workers explore the dichotomy between the Black community and themselves while confronting issues long avoided.

Ticketholders, please join us for a Pre-Film Tribute Toast to Koko Da Doll who was tragically killed prior to the release of this film.

PASSAGES (Feature/France)

Fri June 9 9 pm

A gay couple's marriage is thrown into crisis when one of them begins a passionate affair with a younger woman. An achingly beautiful, sexy & sad French film.

EISMAYER (Feature/Germany)

Sat June 10 2 pm

Hosted by Allen Stafford & David Cristy

Vice Lieutenant Eismayer is the most feared trainer and model macho in the Austrian Military and lives as a gay man in secret. When he falls in love with a young, openly gay soldier, his world gets turned upside down. Based on real events.

NELLY & NADINE (Documentary)

Sat June 10 4 pm

Nelly and Nadine meet in Ravensbrück concentration camp during WW II. They spend the rest of their lives together. Decades later, Nelly's granddaughter goes in search of clues. A poignant film about a love story and the need for individual and collective remembrance.

ITS ONLY LIFE AFTER ALL (Documentary)

Sat June 10 7 pm

An intimate look into the lives of one of the most iconic folk-rock bands in America - the Indigo Girls. With never-before-seen archival and intimate vérité the film dives into the songwriting and storytelling of the music that transformed a generation.

Ticket holders, please join us for a Post-Party Celebration immediately following the screening in the CAT Lobby. Sponsored by Rehoboth Beach Dental.

HORSEPLAY (Feature/Argentina)

Sat June 10 10 pm

It's the Christmas holidays in Argentina, and Andy leaves the city in order to spend some time at a luxury villa with his best friends. Days spent in male company in the timelessness of the holidays encourage rest, relaxation, and the occasional teasing. But their initial consensual horseplay reveals that they each have different personal boundaries.
